

PRESS RELEASE

£3m of new orders for A&S Enterprises Ltd

Construction Company, A&S Enterprises Limited has secured commercial, industrial and education contracts worth £3m within Derby, Nottingham and Staffordshire.

The projects include new offices at Ilkeston for DBT Ltd. The 2 storey offices are valued at £400,000 and work has commenced for this German engineering firm. A £400,000 school has also been secured in Nottingham for the Southwell Diocese. This is a new sports hall at Bramcote School and has recently started on site. The Company has also been awarded a contract to build offices and business units for Leasekey at Lancaster Park, worth £800,000. Recently awarded are new 2 storey offices at Outrams Wharf, Little Eaton for MIP Ltd. This is a further phase at the site and is valued at £1.5m

Andy Sulin, Director said "these latest contracts are a welcome addition to our current workload will take us into the New Year with confidence".

15th December 2006