NEWS RELEASE

Greg Rusedski opens new Baseline Tennis Centre

The new Baseline Tennis Centre was officially opened by Greg Rusedski and LTA Chief Executive, Roger Draper on 8th October 2010.

The project for Stafford Sports College was constructed by local contractor A&S Enterprises Limited. Despite very poor weather and a slow start the project was completed on time and to budget. The £1m facility at Rising Brook, Stafford provides 3 new tennis courts within a steel framed building plus extensions forming changing rooms and offices.

Commenting on the latest contracts awards, Andy Sulin, Director said “We are pleased to have built such a great facility for the local Staffordshire community. This was completed on a fixed price (GMP) basis and despite poor ground conditions the client was delighted with the result”.
