Ground breaking for new £5m residential project, Curzon St, Burton

Developer Hamlet New Homes Ltd and Construction company, A&S Enterprises Ltd will mark the start of the prestigious new “Curzon Court “ apartment project with a ground breaking ceremony on site at 10am Friday 30th March.

The imposing classical style building will comprise of 5 storeys to accommodate 38 apartments in traditional construction with reconstructed stone features and mansard roof. It has been designed by Derby based architectural firm, gino Lombardo associates ltd. This is a high specification development and includes four lifts, dedicated parking, electric gates and is ideally located near the railway station and close to the Town Centre.

Burton based, A & S Enterprises Limited are delighted to have been entrusted with the construction project which will take 80 weeks to complete. Andy Sulin, Director said “This is our biggest contract to date and only 6 miles from our head office. We are pleased to be incorporating both our mechanical and electrical companies on this contract. We look forward to working closely with Hamlet New Homes”.

Neil Crawley of Derby based Hamlet New Homes Ltd said “Demand has been very strong on Curzon Court with 36 units already sold. This is one of several developments for Hamlet New Homes in the Burton area”.
