NEWS RELEASE

Ground Breaking ceremony at Arnold Road Evangelical Church

To mark the commencement of the new extension at Arnold Road Evangelical Church, Councillor Brian Grocock cut the first turf on site accompanied by Dr David Myers and Mr Huw Mitchell, leaders of the Church on Friday the 5th April at 12.30 p.m.

The new 265sqm steel framed extension and alterations will incorporate new worship space, new toilets and ancillary accommodation and will have striking rooflines with sedum roofing. Burton construction company, A & S Enterprises Limited will be looking to complete the project in 28 weeks.

The project has been part-funded through the Landfill Communities Fund by WREN Ltd, of Norfolk, whose Managing Director, Peter Cox, says “ WREN makes a difference to people’s lives by awarding grants to community, environmental and heritage projects across the UK. We’re delighted to support Arnold Road Evangelical Church and their valuable work.”

Andy Sulin, managing director of A&S Enterprises said “This is our third church project and we are delighted to have won this in open competition. We look forward to working with the managing trustees of the Church and the project team”.
